

RN Clinician

Options for Sexual Health is British Columbia's largest sexual and reproductive health service organization, providing comprehensive, non-judgmental clinical, education, and information services in a "pro-choice" context. This dynamic organization has a history of over 60 years of skilled and ethical care.

Responsibilities

- Provide clinical services according to best practices and in compliance with the scope and standards of practice as set out by the BCCNM including the maintenance of annual practice requirements
- Provide non-judgmental counselling on birth control, STIs, pregnancy options, and other reproductive and sexual health issues
- Confidentially maintain client files
- Oversee and/or manage clinic administration and operations
- Oversee and/or manage the coordination of clinic staffing with volunteers and physicians
- Attend organizational education sessions

Qualifications

- BCCNM registration in good standing
- BCCNM Certified Practice Designation in Contraceptive Management & STI Management
- Current CPR,
- Experience working autonomously as a nurse clinician
- Experience working with an interdisciplinary team
- Strong commitment to sexual and reproductive health rights and quality services
- Preferred experience in a sexual and reproductive health environment

Demonstrated skills and qualities

- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Able to analyze and resolve problems with minimal direction

- Ability to triage
- Strong decision making and communications skills a must
- Highly collaborative and a team player
- Comfortable working alone, as a the sole clinician on site
- Experience working with youth
- Ability to multitask in a busy clinic environment

Compensation: The Options RN wage grids starts at $34.04 at year 1 and goes to $45.84 at year 10 plus 4% vacation pay in lieu of time off (which increases to 6% after two years) and 5 annual sick leave days.

All positions at Options for Sexual Health require a signed commitment to Options for Sexual Health's mission, values, objectives, and confidentiality policy.

Our goal is to be a diverse workforce that is representative, at all levels, of the people we serve. We welcome applications from anyone who may contribute to furthering the mission of the organization, and especially from those who identify as Indigenous, LGBTQ2S+, member of a visible minority or marginalized population, and persons with disabilities. If you are a member of any of these groups, we welcome you to self-identify within your application, cover letter, or resume.

As per the current Public Health Orders (Long Term Care/Seniors Assisted Living Provincial Health Officer Order and the Health Sector Order), as of October 26, 2021, all employees working for Options for Sexual Health must be fully vaccinated for COVID-19. Proof of vaccination will be required.

Thank you for your interest in Options for Sexual Health. We regret that only short-listed candidates will be acknowledged.

Please submit your Resume and Cover Letter to Options Clinical Resource Nurse, crn@optbc.org (AND an application online at <https://optionsforsexualhealth.org/employment-application>